Do you have not for profit accounting experience? Are you also looking for a challenging career that helps make Illinois safer for families and unites others to end domestic violence?

The Illinois Coalition Against Domestic Violence, a not for profit, statewide membership organization, is seeking a Chief Financial Officer (CFO). This position not only oversees the finances of the organization, it also provides resources and support to over 50 local domestic violence victims' service organizations throughout Illinois, helping them provide the highest quality, victim-centered services to survivors of domestic violence and their children while adhering to government grant guidelines and requirements.

ICADV is seeking to fill its Chief Financial Officer (CFO) position which is responsible for:

- maintaining general ledger of the organization and preparing organizational financial statements;
- preparing for and coordinating for the annual independent audit filings;
- maintaining payroll for all employees;
- completing and filing grants reporting;
- ensuring execution of agency fiscal policies and all federal and state government funding source requirements;
- implementing generally accepted accounting principles;
- creating agency, project and grant budgets;
- monitoring subrecipient grant expenditures; and
- completing other financial and organizational duties.

Successful applicants must demonstrate their ability to meet qualifications set forth in the job description, including but not limited to having a minimum of three years of not for profit accounting experience and experience with government grants accounting. Successful applicants must be able to thrive in a fast paced, cooperative, nonsmoking, feminist environment. CFO is a full time, exempt position with generous benefits offered.

Applicants without a minimum of three years of not for profit accounting will not be considered. To apply, send resume with a cover letter explaining how your experience will specifically fit the needs of this opportunity. Application materials should be sent to conlon@ilcadv.org or mail to 806 S. College, Springfield, IL 62704 Attn: Sarah no later than July 15, 2017.
